Bunk Notes For Your Camp Name Here

Hi Anthony

Here we are again! Nothing much new here. I just spoke to your Mother and Father. Your Father got the NASCAR tickets. I think it's in September. I'm looking forward to it. We had a good time last year.

Are you keeping up with baseball while you are up there? Did you know the Yankees lost? But what about the Mets? Can you believe they scored 10 runs? I think that is more runs than they scored all season this year. Ha! I think they should give up.

I worked at Floyd Bennett today. We are still trying to finish our Goose. It looks different in dark (very) green. It probably will look good when we get the Police markings on it. I am doing the engine cowling covers. We are using paint remover on them to remove all paint from them. Unfortunately, these pieces are around the engine and they get heated up when the engines are running. This "bakes" the paint onto them and it's hard to get it off. But we are making some progress. We have to finish the plane by the end of August.

That's about it for now. I understand that you called home today. I understand everything is going OK and you are having fun. That's good. Keep doing it!!!

Talk to you tomorrow.

Love - Grandpa
